

Raj Kapoor

Senior Vice President of Fresh Food and Proprietary Beverages

Raj Kapoor is the Senior Vice President of Fresh Food and Proprietary Beverages for 7-Eleven, Inc. He is responsible for driving fresh food and proprietary beverage growth by setting the menu strategy, developing customer centric foodservice platforms, improving core products, renewing the company's current manufacturing infrastructure, and leveraging delivery to increase 7-Eleven's market-share.

Prior to assuming his current role, Raj was the Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer for 7-Eleven, Inc. responsible for developing customer and Franchisee focused technology solutions that enable 7-Eleven's business strategy. Raj has also served as Vice President and General Manager of 7-Eleven Canada, responsible for developing the strategy and action plans to drive quality store growth, expand fresh food and execute Retailer Initiative. He has also served as the Vice President of International.

Raj has more than 25 years of experience with 7-Eleven. He has held various roles within the company including field consultant, logistics manager, sales and merchandising director, senior director of operations and vice president of operations. He holds a bachelor's degree and an Executive Master of Business Administration from Temple University.

Contact: media@7-11.com